

Holman's of Nevada names Larsen Network Systems Engineer

LAS VEGAS – Holman's of Nevada, Inc., a Las Vegas-based technology company, has named Greg Larsen network systems engineer.

For the company, Larsen will oversee the support of the network infrastructure for the company's clients.

Larsen brings to the company 20 years of experience in computer and network systems design, installation, configuration, maintenance, repair, disaster recovery, administration and support services.

Since 1977, Holman's of Nevada – located at 4445 S. Valley View Blvd. – has provided computer hardware and supplies, network support, CAD services and training, and business technology solutions to Southern Nevada's architectural, engineering and construction industries.

For more information, call 702-222-1818 or visit holmansnv.com.

#####